

Many Reasons to Join Our Chamber

Business Contacts Through Networking

People do business with people they know when given the chance. As a member you can make important business contacts at our monthly mixers or luncheons. You may choose to host one of the mixers to gain even more exposure. Only Chamber Members are given that opportunity. You'll not only meet the business leaders of your community, you'll gain them as your customers.

Customer Referrals

The South Nevada County Chamber continually receives an abundance of calls about our members, the needs of our members and the services offered by our members. These calls are from potential customers, suppliers and lenders that will serve your financial needs. Only South Nevada County Chamber Members receive specific referrals from the Chamber office.

Governmental Advocacy

One important role of the South Nevada County Chamber of Commerce is to tackle tough issues that affect members, and to serve as the voice of business on city, county and regional issues. The South Nevada County Chamber strives to keep you informed of the issues that may directly affect you and your business. The collective voice of the chamber membership can do much more than one business alone

SNCC Website

A growing segment of the world turns to the web for initial information regarding almost any subject or service.
